J. ARON & COMPANY, Inc.

CORNER MAGAZINE and NATCHEZ STREETS

● This property is situated on a part of the old Gravier plantation, transferred from owner in February 1789. The structure was erected in 1842 by well-known New Orleans architect James H. Dakin. The building has been completely restored and modernized. (The exterior is in original condition, and one office, which contains marble mantel, in the building through all the years, has been restored to period of 1842.)
